

Healthcare Facility Self-Disclosure Session

February 25, 2011

9:00am to 11:00am

Registration begins at 8:30am

Self Disclosure

About this Session:

Health care facilities are obligated to self-disclose Medicare and Medicaid overpayments. The failure to meet this obligation can result in significant liability for the facility. This session will cover the federal and New York State self-disclosure protocols, including: types of overpayments that must be self-disclosed; the self-disclosure process; and best practices and pitfalls to avoid.

Location:

The Education Center at Unity Hospital
1555 Long Pond Road
Rochester, New York

About the Speakers:

Richard Yarmel, Esq., Partner at Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Greenberg, Formato & Einiger, LLP

Scott Simpson, Esq., Associate at Abrams, Fensterman, Fensterman, Eisman, Greenberg, Formato & Einiger, LLP

Mr. Yarmel has over 25 years of experience as a health care attorney and he and Mr. Simpson advise a broad range of health care providers in federal and State surveys, audits and investigations; Medicaid and Medicare voluntary disclosures, regulatory matters and corporate compliance.
