Healthcare Provider Accounting Update Webinar

The Region 2 Chapters will be hosting a FREE web based presentation by:
Timothy D. Brown, Senior Manager and Martin R. Dunbar, Senior Manager, KPMG.

This presentation will update members on new or recent healthcare industry accounting pronouncements that will be effective as of December 31, 2011, or in the near future. The program will also briefly update members on the US GAAP / IFRS convergence project.

Specific topics they plan to cover:

- ASU 2010-23, Measuring Charity Care for Disclosure
- ASU 2010-24, Presentation of Insurance Claims and Related Insurance Recoveries
- ASU 2011-07, Presentation and Disclosure of Net Revenue, Provision of Bad Debts, and the Allowance for Doubtful Accounts
- Accounting considerations for electronic health record incentive payments
- Status of U.S. GAAP / IFRS convergence

About the Speakers:

Timothy D. Brown is an Audit Senior Manager on rotation in KPMG's Department of Professional Practice since 2009. Prior to this rotation Tim completed a two year rotation at KPMG's Global Services Centre. Before starting his rotations, Tim had six years of experience providing financial statement audit services in KPMG Boston's Consumer and Industrial Markets (CIM) practice, focusing on the For-Profit-Healthcare and Industrial Markets industries. He was promoted into the management group in 2004 after joining KPMG in 2001. He previously worked for a regional firm, Rothstein, Kass & Co., PC.

Martin R. Dunbar is an Audit Senior Manager in KPMG's New England/Upstate New York audit practice. He has over 13 years of audit experience in the Albany and Boston offices. During this time, Marty has served several private and public consumer and industrial product companies, as well as various healthcare organizations. Over the past several years, Marty has focused exclusively on healthcare providers, including academic medical centers, sole community and critical access hospitals operating in New York and New England.
